

Candy is lost in the center of London. The films of the video cameras will help you to find her on the map.

1. She is at Battersea Park

2. She crosses the river Thames through Chelsea Boulevard, and then she turns right on Grosvenor Road and walks along the river banks.

3. She arrives at the Tate Gallery, then turns left on Wauxhall Bridge Boulevard and continues to walk. She stops at Westminster Cathedral for a moment. She is a little tired.

4. Then she turns right on the direction of Westminster Abbey. She can see the lake of St James's Park on the left.

5. She continues to walk and stops at Big Ben. Big Ben is a very big clock in front of the Houses of Parliament. It is between St James's Park and Westminster Bridge. She is so tired and she stops walking.

Can you find her ?
